		ORAL ARGUMENT REQUESTED

ABBOTT LABORATORIES, INC.’S MOTION TO DISMISS FOR LACK OF SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION UNDER THE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE BAR

Defendant Abbott Laboratories, Inc. (“Abbott”) hereby respectfully asks, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1), that this Court dismiss the United States’ First Amended Complaint for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction, on the grounds that the allegations of the First Amended Complaint are based on public disclosures, and that relator Ven-A-Care of the Florida Keys, Inc. (“Ven-A-Care”) is not an original source of the information therein.

Specifically, Abbott asks the Court to find that:

- As a corporation, Ven-A-Care is not an “original source;”
- Ven-A-Care has not met its burden of proving that it voluntarily provided the Government with its “direct and independent knowledge” prior to filing its qui tam lawsuit;
- Ven-A-Care has no direct and independent knowledge of the allegations in the Government’s First Amended Complaint;
- Allegations of Abbott “marketing the spread” for the drugs at issue were publicly disclosed before Ven-A-Care first asserted those claims on August 12, 1997, and also before it filed any complaint on June 23, 1995.

- Allegations of bare “AWP inflation” were publicly disclosed as to Abbott before June 23, 1995 as a result of both Abbott-specific disclosures and industry-wide disclosures sufficient to put the Government on the trail of Abbott’s alleged fraud.

WHEREFORE, Abbott asks that its motion be granted, and relief be provided as requested herein and in the accompanying memorandum.

Dated: June 26, 2009

Respectfully submitted,
